435	jsaronson	AYC	Annapolis		For great views get an invite to AYC.
445	Tempest	Café Normandie	Annapolis		Atmosphere is great, I've never been disappointed in the food or service. I've only had breakfast/brunch there.
84	JungleJim	Castlebay	Annapolis		...Irish Pub ... good food.
111	T37SOLARE	Chick & Ruth's	Annapolis		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for Breakfast
19	mgmhead	Chick & Ruth's	Annapolis		...I like Chick and Ruths
17	SVAuspicious	Chick & Ruth's	Annapolis	★	Chick & Ruth's is a greasy spoon... [not] worth a visit.
15	mgmhead	Chick & Ruth's	Annapolis		...an experience and great food too. So you have to wait, if you aren't out on the Bay sailing you have the time to spare.
5	JohnRPollard	Chick & Ruth's	Annapolis		One of my favorite places for breakfast
7	WouldaShoulda	City Dock Coffee	Annapolis		During the Boat Show I have a little breakfast bagel and sandwich
67	MJBrown	Dock Street Pub	Annapolis		...great pub food.
100	TAK	Ebb Tide	Annapolis		The Ebb is good.. cheap local hangout w/ a decent burger - ample servings and be glad its now smoke free..
97	RhosynMor	Ebb Tide	Annapolis		...a true dive, right next to the Mexican Café (n.b. Mexican Café moved - Ebb Tide is near Edgewood Rd & Bay Ridge)
70	WouldaShoulda	Fleet Reserve Club	Annapolis		the haddock sandwich with onion rings was excellent!! It's really a fish and chips but rings or slaw are optional and they throw in a bun, L & T.
84	JungleJim	Galway Bay	Annapolis		...great place
83	mgmhead	Galway Bay	Annapolis		the food was fantastic.
433	boz86	Harry Browne's	Annapolis		Nice meal, didn't have that Sysco pre-packaged taste. Not a cheap meal, but good.
100	TAK	Harry Browne's	Annapolis		Love Harry Browns.. but yea $$$
98	JungleJim	Harry Browne's	Annapolis		I second ... Harry Brown's Bar. I like Harry Brown's rest - the prices not so much (Borat).
97	RhosynMor	Harry Browne's	Annapolis		...the restaurant is stupid expensive but the bar puts out very large appetizer plates, the burger at 10 bucks is great, good pate and toast- enuff to serve as a dinner is also $10
87	T37Chef	Hell Point Seafood	Annapolis		With Kinkeads stellar reputation, it should be a good eat, if not a little $$, so we'll see, maybe he'll start a trend...good food. REPORTED CLOSED
438	SVAuspicious	Jack's Fortune	Annapolis	★★★ ★	The best Chinese in Annapolis. If you are anchored in Back Creek or the South Anchorage or use any of the marinas on the Edgewood Rd side of Back Creek it's a reasonable walk. Good dependable Chinese food, extremely friendly staff, great lunch specials, and good prices all the time.
66	nickmerc	Jack's Fortune	Annapolis		... good Chinese, plus it is a flashback to 80's decor.
75	JungleJim	Javier's	Annapolis		Off Forrest, near ... 50 - great Mexican
66	nickmerc	Joss Sushi	Annapolis		...average at best
41	chef2sail	Joss Sushi	Annapolis		We love Joss in Annapolis
40	T37Chef	Joss Sushi	Annapolis
23	chef2sail	Joss Sushi	Annapolis		...for the best sushi or Tappan
111	T37SOLARE	Ken's Back Porch Café	Annapolis		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for Breakfast
472	T37Chef	Kilwin's	Annapolis	★★★ ★	It was super expensive for ice cream but service was quick and the in-house, freshly made waffle cones were delicious. A good selection of ice cream and frozen yogurts. Store was clean and busy!

Post	Member	Restaurant	Location	Rating	Recommendations
435	jsaronson	Level Small Plates Lounge	Annapolis		IMHO Level is the best restaurant in downtown Annapolis, but it would be a long walk from the dock.
67	MJBrown	Maria's	Annapolis		...Italian has always been very good
84	JungleJim	McGarvey's	Annapolis		...Irish Pub ... good food.
111	T37SOLARE	McGarvey's	Annapolis		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Oysters, Burgers
364	Nicklaus	Middleton's Tavern	Annapolis		Nice oyster shooters that are usually pretty inexpensive
111	T37SOLARE	Middleton's Tavern	Annapolis		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Oysters
67	MJBrown	Middleton's Tavern	Annapolis		We wouldn't set foot back into Middletons. A couple of years ago they pulled a bait and switch with their menus, with the prices inside much higher than posted.
66	nickmerc	Middleton's Tavern	Annapolis		... awful food, but a decent bar.
60	donhaller	Middleton's Tavern	Annapolis		If I were docked in 'Naptown near "Ego Alley" or the Yacht club area I would be sitting at Middleton's Tavern listening to some nice music and drinking a good hoppy beer and chilln' with my old college buddies!!!
444	boz86	O'Brien's	Annapolis		The rest: Not nearly enough food for the price. We're not looking for the Jersey diner three-meals-in-one, but the food's not good enough to charge Manhattan steakhouse prices on a per ounce basis.
435	jsaronson	O'Brien's	Annapolis		Great happy hour specials at the bar weekdays.
87	T37Chef	O'Brien's	Annapolis		...fish & chips...I have to say it was not bad, thin batter and a nice thick piece of Cod
84	JungleJim	O'Brien's	Annapolis		...Irish Pub ... good food.
66	nickmerc	O'Leary's	Annapolis		The best seafood in town... It is expensive, but well worth it.
161	painkiller	Pad Thai	Annapolis		I highly recommend it. Their wonton soup was the best I've ever had anywhere. The broth isn't the thin yellow water you get at many places. It had cilantro and little bits of garlic in it and was DEElicious. I also had a "salad" (something like Um Yum or Tom Yum) consisting of spicy beef and some veggies. I topped it off with an awesome Thai Iced Tea (love that stuff). The only weird thing was that the spring rolls were deep fried. I'm used to them being in the cellophane-like rice noodle wrappers, uncooked. I'd order them again, though. They were good.
97	RhosynMor	Pad Thai	Annapolis		almost as good as Lemongrass but cheaper
150	SVAuspicious	PF Changs	Annapolis	★★★ ★	We had lunch today at PF Changs in Town Centre. We had a lovely lunch, good food with three glasses of wine between the two of us for $30. It saddens me that among the best places to eat in Annapolis are chains.
434	BubbleheadMD	Piccola Roma	Annapolis		It's a little hole-in-the-wall, Italian restaurant. It gets mixed reviews on Yelp, but I greatly enjoyed my meal there. The service was perfect- attentive without hovering or being annoying.
358	SVAuspicious	Pusser's	Annapolis	★★★ ★	Valentine's Day dinner was a very pleasant surprise. Pusser's Annapolis had a very attractive deal and we decided the view was worth the mediocrity. Surprise! Janet's seared tuna was outstanding and my beef tenderloin tails was excellent. Pusser's is back on our go-to list, especially when it is warm enough to dinghy over. Parking, despite a light turnout in the restaurant, was rough however. 4 surprised stars.
66	nickmerc	Pusser's	Annapolis		...average. Definitely there for the atmosphere.
111	T37SOLARE	Pusser's	Annapolis		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Dockside Bars

97	RhosynMor	Ram's Head	Annapolis		good grub
437	Gladrags1	Red Red Wine	Annapolis		My wife and I had a pleasant and romantic meal. The food was very good and well presented.
447	SVAuspicious	Rocco's Pizza	Annapolis Eastport	★★★ ★	Rocco's Pizza makes really good pizza. Even better, they deliver. Better yet, the delivery drivers understand marinas and moorings and docks - you can sail into Annapolis, take a slip or a mooring or anchor out and still get pizza (you do have to get to a dock somewhere by dinghy or water taxi).
97	RhosynMor	Rockfish	Annapolis		... at happy hour the apps are half price, beer is $2. REPORTED CLOSED
406	T37Chef	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis	★	Overpriced. Service was slow. Lobster Roll sandwich ... three large pieces of shell. Their flatbread wasn't crisp, cheese barely melted, and had no taste. My wife's Cuban was OK.
32	painkiller	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis		Good stuff. A little pricey, but the food is good. In fine weather, you can sit outside at their tiki bar and ogle the mega yachts tied up to the bulkhead.
31	painkiller	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis		Sam's hosts scotch tasting nights every now and then. Prix fixe multi-course menu with scotch throughout.
15	SVAuspicious	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis	★★★	Sam's has mostly good food but is pretty pricey for what you get. The tiki bar is great in season
14	WouldaShoulda	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis		... lunch for the lobster roll too!!
11	MMR	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis		Lobster Mac and Cheese to die for...
3	SVAuspicious	Sam's on the Waterfront	Annapolis	★★★	...nice, but overpriced
84	JungleJim	Sean Donlan	Annapolis		...Irish Pub ... good food.
17	kitejunkie	Smokey Joes	Annapolis		...it was the worst food I have ever eaten,
150	SVAuspicious	Wild Orchid	Annapolis	★★	The new location of Wild Orchid is a very nice facility. The food continues to range from mediocre to average and overpriced for what you get. sigh REPORTED CLOSED
174	edron	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport	★	The Boatyard is great for race/regatta sponsorship and the management great but the food was 1 on the 1-5 scale.
171	T37Chef	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport	★	I stopped in for lunch at the Boatyard Grill this past Wednesday. I was greeted at the door and took a seat at the bar. The bartender was prompt and easy on the eyes. They had just opened so not much was going on yet. I ordered a beer and the Soft Shell Crab Sandwich. As expected, I received my food fairly quickly. Oh the soft shell, what a shame, criminal what they did to it. So much Panko bread crumbs, very thick, and tasted of a deep fryer that needs to be changed more than a delicate flavors of a blue crab. The fries were also not good, warm at best and again tasted of old grease. Prices seems in line for a casual Annapolis restaurant. I've been there three times now I think, none of my visits have resulted in anything good to say about the food. I doubt I'll give it another try, maybe in a few years.

160	mccary	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport	★★★ ★	...We had a late lunch at Boatyard Bar and Grill... and we had their Crispy Soft Shell Crab sandwiches. I have long been a fan of crabs in general and find soft-shells a real treat. I suppose I should have guessed that "Crispy" meant not the traditional sautéed version I am accustomed to. Instead this was a Panko bread crumb breaded/deep fried soft-shell. It was good, and I enjoyed every bite, but next time I will ask for sautéed. Of course the ambiance was perfect for the boating crowd with loads of pictures. I will be back.
111	T37SOLARE	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Breakfast, Burgers
96	TAK	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		...since opening the Raw Bar a few months ago they have had some really nice oysters to choose from.
95	MJBrown	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		oyster shooters while waiting for our Cuban Paninis Sat night. Mmm good
87	T37Chef	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		... I tried the Boatyard once again and ordered a oyster samwich...It sucked just like last time...guess I learned my lessons the hard way.
83	mgmhead	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		...ranks high with me, drinks are cold and you get a good pour. Must disagree about the food however, I find it to be much better than average.
81	TAK	Boatyard Bar & Grill	Annapolis Eastport		I like the bartenders and even better they seem to like us.. But go for the drinks and scene... the food is just so so..
23	chef2sail	Carols Creek	Annapolis Eastport		...for a hideaway from the tourist crowds
435	jsaronson	Carrol's Creek Café	Annapolis Eastport		IMHO Carroll's Creek is the best restaurant in Eastport.
111	T37SOLARE	Carrol's Creek Café	Annapolis Eastport		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Maryland Crab Soup, the View, Cream of Crab Soup
435	jsaronson	Chart House	Annapolis Eastport		For great views, Chart House in Eastport.

328	Sabreman	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		Good
97	RhosynMor	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		obvious choice and decent pub food
81	TAK	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		...fries are the best as is the crab pretzel
66	nickmerc	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		...a great pub. Don't expect gourmet food, but it has excellent bar food.
65	Bermudahigh	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		...a wannabe for Marmadukes. gone, not forgotten.
60	donhaller	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		They have a great Cheeseburger with Swiss and Mushrooms!
19	mgmhead	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		...a greasy place

17	SVAuspicious	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport	★★★ ★	Best pub food in Annapolis
111	T37SOLARE	Davis' Pub	Annapolis Eastport		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Maryland Crab Soup, Burgers
17	SVAuspicious	Eastport Yacht Club	Annapolis Eastport	★★★	...must be a member or guest... has a very good kitchen.
477	kb3pwc	Grumps	Annapolis Eastport		To the uninitiated, Grumps is sort of confusing. Signage everywhere, goofy pictures, rubber fish with a number on it, Guacamole burger with onion straws and hot pastrami with slaw/thousand island dressing on rye with sweet potato fries were excellent! Not a quiet lunch but an excellent one. I would recommend Grump's. Plus it is so close to West Marine.
340	DRFerron	Leeward Market	Annapolis Eastport		At the recommendation of several in this thread, I (and the sailing club I was with) give a hearty "thumbs up" to Leeward Market and Cafe in the Eastport neighborhood of Annapolis. The cafe is quaint without being fake about it and serves a good breakfast. Considering eight people descended on this little place at the same time, everyone received their meals quickly. Thinking it would be too big for one person, two of our group shared a Twisted Spinnaker, which had a bunch of stuff inside an herbed pizza dough. They loved it. The rest of us had standard breakfast fare and it was all good. Coffee refills are free if you use their mugs instead of the take-out cups and there were a good selection of teas.
81	TAK	Lewnes	Annapolis Eastport		...a treat
75	JungleJim	Lewnes	Annapolis Eastport		Original steak house in Eastport, next to Ruth's Chris - better
131	SVAuspicious	Mexican Café	Annapolis Eastport	★★	...current plans to close in mid-July (a CVS is going in that spot); they are relocating to West Annapolis.
100	TAK	Mexican Café	Annapolis Eastport		...has a nice marg and good conqueso and chips.
97	RhosynMor	Mexican Café	Annapolis Eastport		truly one of the great Mexican dives just opposite the Giant on Back creek
-	jorgenl	Parthenon	Annapolis Eastport		My wife and I shared a spanikopita for starter. Soggy pastry and it seemed like it had been microwaved. My wife ordered Mousaka and got a Greek salad with that - the salad was warmish (as opposed to chilled)and the Mousaka was like moose kaka I had the gyro platter, not too bad but the meat was bit rubbery. REPORTED CLOSED

Post	Member	Restaurant	Location	Rating	Recommendations
369	SVAuspicious	Parthenon	Annapolis Eastport	★★★ ★	If you anchor or moor in Back Creek Parthenon is a reasonable walk up either Edgewood Rd or Bay Ridge Ave. They don't participate in eCruisers. Parthenon is open under new management after the passing last year of the previous owner/chef. The dining room has been spiffed up a bit but you won't be surprised at anything you see. The menu has been overhauled. It seems to me that the prices are generally higher and some of the old favorites have passed. I used to truly enjoy the gyro platter with fries and salad. You'll have to add the sides a la carte now which gets a bit pricey. It's a challenge to describe the new Parthenon fairly since the old Parthenon is so near to my heart. I had the gyro sandwich special that came with red potato fries. The gyro was very good. The yogurt sauce was excellent as was the meat. The tomatoes were a bit woody but we all have trouble getting really good tomatoes this early in the season. The only real disappointment was the fries which were both undercooked and soggy. Service (hi Melanie!) can only be described as outstanding. I was well tended to without being interrupted. Good service is a challenging balance between attention and intrusion. Current service is a big step ahead of the old management and most other places in Annapolis and resulted in my fourth star. Management is definitely interested in feedback a good Greek place on Bay Ridge; not well advertised but they do take-out. Reasonable walk from the Back Creek Nature Park landing between Port A and Jabin's. REPORTED CLOSED
131	SVAuspicious	Parthenon	Annapolis Eastport	★★★
98	JungleJim	Parthenon	Annapolis Eastport		I second the [Parthenon] (Greek) REPORTED CLOSED
97	RhosynMor	Parthenon	Annapolis Eastport		REPORTED CLOSED
29	painkiller	The Main Ingredient	Annapolis Eastport		They have some pretty fancy stuff there. I like to get their French toast topped with cinnamon apples and vanilla custard (I like to avoid the scale for a few days afterward). Deeeelicious.
482	Nicklaus	Vin 909	Annapolis Eastport	★★★ ★	The mussels app had a light mushroom and bacon sauce. The skirt steak app had a sweet and spicy marinade. The main course pizza crust was thin and crispy and the toppings generous. The butterscotch pudding could have been a little colder, but it was a great ending. The wine prices are great - especially by DC standards.
335	WingNWing	Lebanese Taverna	Annapolis Harbour Center		Inexpensive & authentic. Of course I can only speak for the vegetarian offerings but we enjoy the felafel!
22	SVAuspicious	Carlson's Thai Kitchen and Donut Shop	Annapolis Main St	★★★	I kid you not. Pretty far if one is arriving by boat however.
17	SVAuspicious	Osteria 177	Annapolis Main St	★★★ ★	...the best Italian in town.
97	RhosynMor	Sly Fox	Annapolis Main St		decent outdoor dining, hit or miss.
79	nickmerc	Yin Yankee	Annapolis Main St		Yin Yankee had a new chef a while back. Went way down hill. It might even be closed now.
75	JungleJim	Yin Yankee	Annapolis Main St		whacky Asian fusion and sushi - unique
370	jsaronson	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.		Had steamed crabs at Cantler's Saturday. $75/dozen for extra large. Excellent crabs and a free slip while we ate!

Post	Member	Restaurant	Location	Rating	Recommendations
364	Nicklaus	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.		Good - mainly for the low-key ambiance. The crabs are pretty expensive, especially when compared to buying live bushels at the DC fish market and having them steamed there for free. The beer is cheaper on my patio as well.
166	mccary	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.	★	Cantler's on Mill Creek off Whitehall Bay needs to be removed from our list so no one makes the mistake of stopping by for dinner. The food was mediocre at best and VERY expensive, a dozen steamed crabs was $60.00 and this at a time when crabs prices are falling over the area... I had scallops and my brother had spiced shrimp. Both were no better than OK. This wasn't worth the trip in Mill Creek.
115	wwilson	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.	★★	My wife and I go back every now and then expecting what we used to get. The kitchen doesn't care anymore - why bother when the place is flooded with people who love it for the view, or the hangout, or the tradition, or because they cook crabs there, which seems to be less than a culinary challenge anyway
111	T37SOLARE	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Steamed Crabs, Maryland Crab Soup, Cream of Crab Soup, Oysters, Crab cakes
69	Gladrags1	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.		one of my favorite crab houses. The crabs were great, juicy and plentiful. the view is great.
17	SVAuspicious	Cantler's	Annapolis Mill Ck.	★	Cantler's is a pit [not] worth a visit.
131	SVAuspicious	Fado's Irish Pub	Annapolis West St	★★★ ★	Decent food at good prices. Free WiFi that is really fast.
75	JungleJim	Jerry's	Annapolis West St		...get the "Crab Bomb"
17	SVAuspicious	Lemongrass	Annapolis West St	★★★	... quite good (Thai).
296	josrulz	Level Small Plates Lounge	Annapolis West St		It's a smaller restaurant, but has plenty of seating and a small bar, then upstairs is all "lounge" with a larger bar, as I recall. It's a step above the average fair downtown, and to me feels more fresh (both atmosphere and food) than the spendy seafood places in Eastport. It's casual, but personally, I wouldn't wear shorts or t-shirt there--I'd go a step above. We've sampled several wines on the list, including some reds from Argentina that went very well the bison carpaccio I mentioned, which we always order when we're there. We've tried the hummus (love the garlic), the grilled calamari (lemon, sea salt, capers...), spicy tuna tartare, gnocchi, several of the flatbread pizzas, and a rockfish ceviche... At the minimum, everything we've tried has provided a nice experience--interesting flavors and nothing "standard". The staff is helpful and advocate for their locally acquired ingredients. Questions we've had about a wine here and there have been answered by someone who'd obviously tried it personally.
66	nickmerc	Luna Blu's	Annapolis West St		Huge servings, great food, and great prices.
66	nickmerc	Ram's Head	Annapolis West St		They have monthly micro brew releases, good food, live stage, and a great outdoor dining area.
68	painkiller	Tommy & Joe's	Annapolis West St		...the food sucked. Bland chicken wings, bland sandwich, and the soda tasted funny, like they hadn't cleaned the lines out in a while.

Post	Member	Restaurant	Location	Rating	Recommendations
66	nickmerc	Tsunami	Annapolis West St		The sushi is great. You will want to go on the earlier side as it is a busy local hangout and gets loud.
465	T37Chef	The Point Crabhouse	Arnold, MD (Ferry Point Marina)	★★★	Good view but not far from the travel lift. Service was somewhat slow at first, particularly getting our drink order to the table. Ahi Tuna Tacos and a double Cranberry-Orange Crush were tasty but the fries were cold. The server promptly sent out new fries for the table that were hot and well seasoned. Baked Crab dip in Bread bowl, for the price, was a little short on crab and dip and over on bread.
23	chef2sail	Docks Oyster House	Atlantic City, NJ		...AC tradition
23	chef2sail	Fairmount Tavern	Atlantic City, NJ		where the mafia takes their own for their "last supper"
23	chef2sail	White House Subs	Atlantic City, NJ		best anywhere and I mean anywhere... check out the celebrity pictures and take a camera
17	SVAuspicious	The Rusty Scupper	Baltimore	★★★ ★	...brunch... is very nice
67	MJBrown	One Eyed Mike's	Baltimore Bond St.		...our favorite bar. A real surprise is their small dining room in the back. The food is fantastic and reasonably priced. Fast, friendly service too.
22	SVAuspicious	Chesapeake Wine Company	Baltimore Boston St.	★★★ ★	great small plates
67	MJBrown	Dead Saloon	Baltimore Fells Pt.		...casual dining. Their open face roast beef, in season, is some of the best we've ever had.
162	mgmhead	The Black Olive	Baltimore Fells Pt.	★★★ ★★	... superb! Baltimore's Fells Point area on Bond Street. A Greek restaurant with heavy emphasis on seafood. Fresh fish is their specialty and they know their business. I highly recommend it to anyone for great food and excellent service. A bonus, it's just down the street from One-Eyed Mike's which is an excellent place for a drink.
23	chef2sail	Roy's	Baltimore Inner Harbor		...the best in Pacific Rim
23	chef2sail	La Scala	Baltimore Little Italy		...superb
19	mgmhead	La Scala	Baltimore Little Italy		...wonderful food and great service.
13	painkiller	G & M	Baltimore off 695.		Good food at G&M and the crab cakes are some of the best around.
11	WoulDaShoulda	G & M	Baltimore off 695.		The jumbo lump is un-natural and foreign but it's still good
2	chucklesR	Prop's	Bodkin Creek		good fish selection
144	WoulDaShoulda	Jimmy's Grille	Bridgeville, DE	★★★ ★	the crab cake was nearly adequate, fried and round, the turkey club was made with carved turkey breast meat and the fried chicken may be the best yet. Cole slaw was excellent, and nearly all the sides have miniature dumplings in them. "Slippery" dumplings they call them.
119	T37SOLARE	Stoney's	Brooms Island, MD		2010 Ches. Bay Mag Best Restaurants for: Steamed Crabs, Crab Soup, Crab cakes
16	wwilson	Stoney's	Brooms Island, MD	★★★	This is their original of 4 restaurants. Revamped a few seasons ago with dock-space for a dozen or so boats. Great outdoor deck and bar and good seafood dishes. Keep going up the Pax past Solomons to Island Ck. to find it.

Post	Member	Restaurant	Location	Rating	Recommendations
17	WouldaShoulda	Chesapeake Inn	C&D Canal		...the featured item was crab meat and egg white omelets. They also serve a fantastic Bloody Mary in a 16oz beer glass and a jumbo spiced shrimp on top.
151	wwilson	Bistro Poplar	Cambridge, MD	★★★ ★★	This is our 2nd visit, this time taking friends for a birthday. Fabulous - really: proving that the 1st visit was no fluke. A full five stars. This is not a sailor dive by any means, but shorts and boat shoes are right at home on a hot summer day. Try Cambridge in any case and if you do - don't miss this place.
94	wwilson	Bistro Poplar	Cambridge, MD	★★★ ★★	Really, really good food! ... I think you will like it a lot. A word of caution though, this is not "sailor food", and do bring the Master Card or Visa: but it will be worth it.
354	SVAuspicious	Cambridge Yacht Club	Cambridge, MD	★★★ ★	We visited friends in Cambridge who are members. We believe that CYC offers reciprocity to other clubs on the Chesapeake, and don't have the 50 mile minimum distance requirement that some do. I haven't confirmed this. The food was good. The steak (of steak and crab cake) was excellent; the crab cake a bit soggy but otherwise acceptable. Pasta was excellent. Service was very good - right down to consistently serving from the left and clearing from the right. CYC is not a stuffy blue-blazer club. It's a warm a comfortable place were the staff are well trained. 4 stars, despite the soggy crab cake.
355	kb3pwc	Snapper's Waterfront Café	Cambridge, MD	★★	Service was just OK. Not a very attentive server. Probably we as two were not a large enough party to excite her. The big problem was the meal I had. It was a shrimp, sausage, tomato jumbalia type dish that she did say was spicy. I do enjoy spicy so went for it. Well I found it extremely hot. Tried to eat it. Clayton also could not eat it. Painfully spicy seemed over the top for restaurant food. I did take it back to the boat and added a can of stewed tomatoes, lemon juice, a little bit of sugar and salted to taste and it was a still spicy meal for two for lunch. This was the second disappointing meal I have had at Snappers. First was a very mediocre crab cake that seemed over priced. So I am done with Snappers. Too bad because it is so close and has a great view.
169	wwilson	Snapper's Waterfront Café	Cambridge, MD	★★	... the meals are so-so at best, put together by a kitchen that operates at a... well, a turtle's pace. Lots of hustling young waiters but they can't make up for the logjam perpetuated by the kitchen. A mound of sizzling fajitas - greasy & an embarrassment of chicken tortelloni in a heavy smothering white sauce . Come for the beer - go (elsewhere) for a meal.
102	SVAuspicious	Snapper's Waterfront Café	Cambridge, MD	★★★	...pretty good
-	kb3pwc	Suicide Bridge Restaurant	Cambridge, MD	★★★ ★★	We really enjoyed the choices offered. There was a buffet offered Friday night that offered fresh oysters being schucked while you wait, more fish and meat options, fresh baked breads. It was pretty impressive. We choose to divi up a two crab cake dinner and a tender $12.00 prime rib dinner so we were getting surf and turf. Salad was fresh and crisp. String beans were very, very good. The sad thing is that the Rt. 50 bridge on the Choptank River is only 50 feet high. Maybe we need to learn to careen Tango over so we can go East to this nice restaurant by boat.

384	aa3jy	Suicide Bridge Restaurant	Cambridge, MD		I did the 12 dollar value meal which consisted of an 8 oz. Prime rib with (2)sides. Les had the matched pair of Crab Cakes which we both shared each others main entree. Followed by their Key Lime pie. Les will conduct a more thorough follow on review as she is a more worldly consignor of restaurants due to her job travels... from #385: "Clayton's prime rib was generous, tender and flavorful. Big YUM there. My Backfin crab cakes were mostly filler. OK, you don't win all the time.... So then on to dessert. Who is not happy with something sweet at the end of the meal? So we ordered the Key Lime Pie. WOW, it was horrible!! Tasteless and not worth the calories. Did they leave out the lime? Was it old? It was like sweet glue. At least they were gracious enough to take it off our bill."
355	kb3pwc	The High Spot	Cambridge, MD	★★★ ★	about a block from the water. This was great food and service. We had a table outside. Enjoyed a short ribs/mashed/greens dish. Excellent! I had a Tom Collins that was tart but finished with a cherry. We also shared a Stout Chocolate Cake. That was good for a few bites and was also good the next day. More of a brownie really. Rating: 4.5
119	wwilson	Kelly's Pub	Cape Charles, VA	★★★	...very good food and a great selection of beer & ale on tap
23	wwilson	The Chesapeake	Cape Charles, VA	★★★ ★	A jazz oriented restaurant with live music offered on weekends, the fare was very good, a notch above "sailor food" but not pretentious.

23	MJBrown	Island Grill	Cape May, NJ
76	chef2sail	Mad Batter	Cape May, NJ		...strawberry banana stuffed French toast on the Porch for breakfast
458	DRFerron	Amber Lantern	Chesapeake, VA		Had the Chef's Special of swordfish with a side of risotto and mahi mahi (on the menu). Both were fantastic. Service was excellent. For a higher end restaurant, the prices were reasonable (meal and a microbrew came to $37). 75-dollars spent in the restaurant is good for 1-night mooring credit at Top Rack Marina.
388	kb3pwc	Schaefer's Canal House	Chesapeake City, MD		It seems to have a nice selection of items on the menu and a very open feel to the large timber arch that separates the dining area and the bar. All windows give you that nice view plus you can see the vessels anchored out in the small basin across the way. We had sandwiches that were good but not inexpensive. I had a corn beef special. Good with little fat but not as spicy as I would like. Clayton had a caprese panini sandwich. Mine was enough to save half and enjoy for lunch the next day. It should be noted that they had a menu that looked very good for Thanksgiving. For all those who don't want to prepare a large meal, this could be just what one needs before the frenzy that many enjoy as "Black Friday".

22	wwilson	Fish Whistle	Chestertown, MD	★★★	Good food, uptown a short, pleasant walk from the dock. They served a dozen of us from SMSA one Saturday and did it well. BBQ brisket & burrito for us (one each). Pretty good food and prices.
119	mgmhead & painkiller	Fish Whistle (formerly The Warf)	Chestertown, MD		...they do serve sherry with the chowder...located on the Chester River.
462	chef2sail	Harbor House	Chestertown, MD (Worton Creek)	★	Entrees were miniscule and showed a lack of imagination. The stuffed rockfish was dried out with some soupy mixture of crab imperial in which the mayonnaise had separated. Sesame Asian flat iron steak needed a magnifying lens to find any sesame seeds and was overcooked.
459	WouldaShoulda	Harbor House	Chestertown, MD (Worton Creek)		Seafood or steak, starters or desserts, no one complained about a thing except the dated decor and bathrooms. Be prepared to spend -$30 for entrees, (the night we went thru August, all entrees were just $20, find the coupon in the Marina Store) and leaving full and tipsy.
111	SVAuspicious	Dockside Restaurant	Colonial Beach, VA	★★★	basic American food
422	closecall	Fat Frieda's	Colonial Beach, VA		They advertise the best crabcake and they may be right. Kickin Crab chowder is also very good. Definitely not a fancy place but it fits right in with Colonial Beach's funky 50's style.
428	PalmettoSailor	Happy Harbor	Deale, MD		Happy Harbor has been our go to for several years as they do a great burger and fish and chips basket for a decent price. I think it was last year the ownership changed and the menu was broadened just a bit. Still seems to be a great choice to grab a bite when you just want decent food at a reasonable price.
427	SVAuspicious	Happy Harbor	Deale, MD	★★★	Good place. Basic pub food. The ingredients are definitely first rate - four stars. My burger came out well underdone (I ordered medium rare) which was handily dealt with by the owner who was on-site. It took a while and frankly staff could have been more attentive. Still, Happy Harbor is what it purports to be - a locally focused bar and restaurant that serves good food based on good ingredients. I have yet to try them, but the fishing charter provisioning menu looks equally appropriate for a day sail with friends and family.
403	PalmettoSailor	Happy Harbor	Deale, MD		Happy Harbor has had ownership/mangement changes over the past year. I agree that Happy Harbour is a dive. I liked that this place was never super crowded, the food was good if somewhat limited and it was the only place in Deale that I felt wasn't over priced to massively overpriced. My hope here is that the new owner doesn't turn HH into another cookie cutter, over priced, crappy food, tiki bar that will draw droves of those that used to turn their nose up at the place.
391	Nicklaus	Happy Harbor	Deale, MD		Happy Harbor is a true dive bar. Good fried food, cold beer, good burgers. And, they are open later than most places in Deale

151	wwilson	Happy Harbor	Deale, MD	★★★	A waterfront dive with on-the-water deck. It is a crabs place and I don't eat them, but they do make a pretty fair hamburger. You may have to wash it down with light-beer though (the Fisherman's Favorite - Ugh). Right in the thick of the commercial fishing boats (head & crabbers) who go out of Herring Bay so the crabs will be fresh, still... good but nothing special.
415	Nicklaus	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		Wife and I ate / watched the fireworks tonight at Skipper's Pier in Deale after a West Marine run. The food was very good.
403	PalmettoSailor	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		Skippers has had ownership/mangement changes over the past year. My last visit to Skippers a month or so ago, has me concerned its seen its best days. A few years ago this place won CBM's Best of the Bay competition for its Crabcakes, but I felt it had slipped quite a bit in my last couple of visits.
391	Nicklaus	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		reopened with the new chef, but they have pretty good nightly specials - including a steamed crab special. The fish tacos are good.
367	BayWindRider	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		This place has awesome crab cake sandwiches... Unfortunately, the restaurant is under new management due to landlord issues and it's getting a face lift. It's shutdown right now until renovations are done. Hope they keep the same cooks...
364	Nicklaus	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		Good spot to grab a drink outside and have a tasty and cheap fish taco.

2	midlifesailor	Skipper's Pier	Deale, MD		I had the crab cake, shrimp and oyster basket and my wife had sautéed scallops and we were both very pleased. The fried crab cakes were very lightly breaded with just enough filler to hold the lumps of crabmeat together and it and the shrimp and oysters were perfectly cooked. The scallop's my wife ordered were sautéed to perfection, served over a grilled potato slice and accompanied with corn salsa. Sweet and succulent.
364	Nicklaus	Umai Sushi	Deale, MD		The sushi is very good. Their oyster roll was unique and worth trying – in addition to more traditional options.

321	chef2sail	Deep Creek Restaurant	Deep Creek, Magothy R.	★★★ ★	Great view,,,sitting overlooking the creek and boats. Nice ice cold air conditioning. Service was very good. She was knowledgable about the menu, recited the specials, was appropriately there for refills and on time with serving, yet was inabtrusive. 7.5 out of 10 We both had Cream of Crab Soup...served hot with a side of sherry (Not Sherry Dave). Big chunks of lump crabmeat, velvety cream soup with a great taste and perfect consistancy. Not salty.... 8.5 ot of 10 Donna had a fried oyster sandwich on a croissant. 3 huge oysters, freshly breaded, looked at atsted great.. 9 out of 10. (To get a 10 nwould have had to be a homemade remoulade instead of commercial cocktail sauce) I had a shrimp salad on croissant. Tidi shrimp, good taste...well seasoned...6 out of 10 because they should have used U-25 and cut the up instead of U-99 (Tidi shrimp), the taste would have been better Good fresh made coffee...black of course to be able to taste it.
179	mccary	Deep Creek Restaurant	Deep Creek, Magothy R.	★★★ ★	... This is my second visit to this out of the way restaurant. ... If you have dinner, you can have a slip for the night at no charge. The marina has no facilities (elect, water or restrooms). Their fare starts with several homemade soups, Oyster Stew, Maryland Crab, Velvet Cream of Crab and French Onion. The Stew and Maryland Crab are excellent. Entrées include the full range of seafood and traditional land foods. The broiled (can be sautéed on request) Crab Cakes ($26 and Tuesday's Special $20) are superb with little filler, a very generous portion. This is my favorite and worth a stop just for these. On this visit I had the Scallops Monterey ($19). Baked in a casserole dish with mushrooms and topped with Monterey Jack Cheese, this was an excellent choice. On the recent visit the vegetable of the day was squash, both green and yellow, and they were steamed just right and had some wonderful added spices. Dessert was the Decedent Chocolate Cake and was more than enough chocolate to quell those chocolate cravings. The Key Lime pie looked equally good...
165	mccary	Deep Creek Restaurant	Deep Creek, Magothy R.	★★★ ★	On a recent trip to Baltimore I stopped overnight on The Magothy and visited a nice restaurant on Deep Creek (first creek on the South Side after entering the narrows). The Deep Creek Restaurant is worthy of a stop. We had crab cakes (evening's special, $19.95 in early September) that were as good as any I have had. And with dinner there is free Wifi and a free slip. The dock left more than a bit to be desired, but for the price is was fine.

73	wwilson	Crabby Dick's	Delaware City	★★★	A very typical dockside seafood establishment, but well worth the visit. Good seafood and burgers and a nice outdoor dining deck where you can watch shipping going up and down the Delaware at close quarter. Don't hang out in that nasty Reedy Island Anchorage anymore. Take a tie for the night at Del. City Marina, even I can get my six foot deep lead-belly in (on the half-tide).

34	SVAuspicious	Yellowfin	Edgewater, MD	★★★	South River just above Rt 2 bridge (watch the overhead clearance!) has outstanding, well-priced appetizers at happy hour. The place is a bit of a meet-market and the dinner menu is overpriced. Happy hour apps in the bar are a favorite 'dinner' for us ★★★★★. Pull into Liberty Marina or anchor in the river tucked behind the marina.

453	WouldaShoulda	Baker's Restaurant	Elkton, MD	★★★	Upscale diner vibe. Many familiar items such as a hot turkey open faced sandwich with gravy and mashed potatoes or crab cake are reasonably well executed. Once exotic now practically ubiquitous fish tacos are on the small plate/appetizer menu but there are three of them and enough for a meal for -$9. I had the crab ravioli which showed up in the crab bisque soup!! It seemed like this was the local place for eating every day, instead of special occasions.

I had the crab sampler, I have never walked away from a meal so satisfied in my life. Everything was spot on. We called ahead and reserved a slip at Rippon's Seafood on Lower Hooper's, which included the courtesy van to get to the restaurant. It was an experience I highly recommend 401	T37Chef	Mike's North	Pasadena, MD	★★	Located at White Rocks Marina. Very nice renovation adding an outdoor bar overlooking Rock Creek. Food has been good, nothing special so far. Ive had a crab cake sandwich and a Burger. Crab Cake was decent, not to much filler and not over seasoned. Burger was performed and not medium as requested, probably a good thing Fries are preslidced frozen but okay. Cream of crab they didn't over season with old bay, you could actually taste crab, however not much lump, probably "special" grade. Both times service was good, friendly but not fast.

But if you are ever in the neighborhood give it a try via dink or car. This is a waterfront-dive in the best sense, nice facilities and a great deck overlooking the very pretty river and marshes. We had steamed clams in butter & garlic sauce and excellent sea food salads of large chunks of crab meat and shrimp - very fresh very good. I'm going to give it 4-stars, but in the kinder context of the waterfront dive.

479	WoulDaShoulda	Mike's Crab House	Riva, MD		While the oysters where not .50 each yet, the regular price of 9.95 a dozen ain't bad! On a Sunday evening at 6pm it was more crowded than I remember, it took 20 minutes or so to be seated. NY strip with crab imperial turned out OK but less pink than I prefer. It was a good, thick well proportioned 12oz steak as advertised. Crab meat salad suited perfectly.
426	WoulDaShoulda	Mike's Crab House	Riva, MD		Raw oyster special, cream o' crab soup, and salad bar. Salad bar was fresh and had a good variety.
396	WoulDaShoulda	Mike's Crab House	Riva, MD		I had the fried oyster sandwich and the wife had the crabcake, both acceptable. I prefer the fried oysters on plain white bread but the potato hamburger roll was OK. The French fries where golden brown and delicious!! Our waiter was efficient and businesslike, which I prefer.

332	DRFerron	Bay Wolf	Rock Hall, MD	★★★ ★	Bay Wolf is not often mentioned along with other Rock Hall restaurants because it isn't right on the harbor. It is located at the intersection of Main St. and Rt. 20. The menu is mostly Austrian with traditional Bay foods (crab cakes, oysters) available, too. The owners are Austrian. The first time we walked in I looked at the white table cloths and thought "Uh, oh. Too upscale for shorts and Ts." After my eyes adjusted I realized it was paper on the tables and saw some diners with shorts and Ts and some dressed up. Either is acceptable. We've had dinner in both the restaurant and at the bar. Locals seem to eat at the bar and we've had good conversations with them so we prefer the bar. Last weekend I had a delicious and well-seasoned shrimp scampi (you MUST love garlic) and John had an apple and walnut salad that he enjoyed. He has also tried several of the Austrian entrees and liked them as well. His favorite is all you can eat oysters on Wednesday nights. A bowl of the fantastic lobster bisque can be a meal by itself. Whether at the bar or at a table, we are given a basket of warm, fresh bread with a nice crispy crust. The bartender is attentive and makes sure everything is cleared away and drinks are replenished. On Mondays the entrees are half price.
333	DRFerron	Harbor Shack	Rock Hall, MD		Our go-to restaurant in Rock Hall for buffalo wings. We're slightly addicted. We did a taste test with Watermans and there was no comparison. John felt bad for betraying HS. We habitually eat here on our way home from the boat. The menu has changed since last year. I highly recommend the Summer Poppy Seed Salad with the poppy seed dressing. Heirloom Tomato Salad was good as well. Harbor Shack Club was delicious, but I couldn't finish it. It tasted just as good the next day (although slightly soggy). We really have not had a bad meal here. Waiters are attentive and tables are clean. We avoid going when they have live bands as it is crowded and noisy and we like sitting outside.

The chef is a young man of 22 years and he is extremely talented, imo. They do a nice brunch Sunday mornings, too.
375	DRFerron	Swan Point Inn	Rock Hall, MD	★★★ ★★	We both started out with the French onion soup (home made). It wasn't overly salted like some I've tasted that use commercial broth. John had a craft beer and I had a glass of sangria. John had crab cakes. The two good-sized cakes were all crab and seasoning. No filler. They were barely held together on the plate. His two sides were pickled beets (home made) and applesauce (server said it was poured fresh from the Musselman's jar). I had Delmonico steak, blackened medium rare with southwest-style rub, a pat of butter on top and a side dish of a dipping sauce that was just a little thicker than an au jus. Well seasoned, well cooked. My sides were cole slaw (home made) and green beans with onions and peppers. We finished with a peach cobbler (home made) that we shared. Dessert selection also included: tiramisu, chocolate/peanut butter cake (looked more chocolate), carrot cake, a bunch more that I don't remember. Maybe eight in all. The service was impeccable. Our waitress was attentive without being annoying, gave us the history of the restaurant. It is owned by two women in their seventies one of whom cooks along with the two chefs. They took off a couple years to travel and had someone else manage the restaurant. They've been back and in command for the past three or so years. Most of the food is home made and/or local. We have to take their word on that but it was
423	DRFerron	The Kitchen	Rock Hall, MD		Group reservation during Pirates and Wenches Fantasy Weekend. Arctic char with asparagus and mashed potatoes. Everything was cooked perfectly and the potatoes had a lot of flavor, not just mash and serve. The chef prepared a vegetarian dish that was not on the menu. This was our third visit and again we were not disappointed.
419	DRFerron	The Kitchen	Rock Hall, MD		We ate lunch. I wanted to try the soup of the day, which was Kitchen Crab soup (with a kick). They only offered a bowl, which would have been a meal by itself and I wanted to try a sandwich. She noticed my hesitation and offered to let us split one bowl. That turned out really well. The soup was delicious and came with a roll. John had The Kitchen BALT (smoked bacon, avocado, romaine and aioli). He said the tomato was home grown and had a lot of taste. The sandwich came with a side of homemade potato salad, which was also good. I had the tenderloin quesadilla with a dollop of guacamole and sour cream. The quesadilla contained beef, caramelized onion and melted fontina. DELICIOUS. Very much recommended.

357	kb3pwc	Waterman's	Rock Hall, MD	★★★ ★	I had a very pleasant meal. The service was pretty good but the crisp, Caesar Salad and Backfin Lump Crab Penne Alfredo dinner I had was so good I thought I would send kudos. Clayton ordered the prime rib meal and found it probably too rare to his liking...(probably should have sent it back for some more fire time) and not quite as tender as hoped but had a good flavor. We shared a nice small slice of Key Lime Pie that ended our dinner with a sweet and tart reward. We both felt that it was a better meal than we had enjoyed at Waterman's for many years. Then we tried to figure out why it was better. Was it because the place was almost empty? The chef could spend more time on each individual meal? There were probably ten tables seated...no one on the deck, no band. Ah well, I think I will go back again.

126	T37Chef	Catamaran's	Solomons, MD		I ate half reluctantly, but my wife insisted (she is the more rational one of course). They did remove the burgers from our bill and the kids did get their lunch, even if it was made from a box.
111	MJBrown	CD Café	Solomons, MD		We did however eat dinner at the CD Café and it was excellent.

151	wwilson	DiGiovanni's Italian Restaurant	Solomons, MD	★	... If this is Italian, then it is Benito Mussolini's revenge from the grave! The term "al dente" is not in the lexicon in this little outcast of Italia. Pasta is boiled to the consistency of glue then splashed, still soaking unappetizingly in its own water, on a cold, nearly clean plate. Tomato based sauces seem to share a lot more than color with Heinz 57. "Atmosphere" is a half dozen tables placed cozily by a beer bar - that (from the aroma) is mopped all too infrequently. Hated it - all three times. (Two visits in near Shanghai conditions...

421	boz86	Dry Dock	Solomons, MD	★★★	Food was about a 3.5 out of 5 (as comparison, we thought Stoney's crabcakes were better but these were decent), drinks were outstanding, staff was friendly and helpful. However, it won't be on the top of the return list, because we found the chairs (both bar and table) to be too uncomfortable to sit in for an extended meal.
111	SVAuspicious	Dry Dock	Solomons, MD	★★★ ★	... good
424	boz86	Ruddy Duck	Solomons, MD		It's good. They've got their own brewery which we didn't know before stopping. My oatmeal stout tasted great and Kathy's lighter beer, with a honey finish, also tasted good. We both had the crabcake sandwich, which our waiter told us came from a St. Mary's recipe. Very good sandwich and fries.

22	wwilson	Vera's White Sands	Solomons, MD	★★★	Completely refurbished under new ownership since Vera's passing ('05). Keep going up the Pax past Solomons to St Leonard's Ck. Sandwiches & traditional fare served simply, but a great deck overlooking the Ck. with outdoor dining and cocktails. Plenty of dock-space at no cost with dinner. Easy anchorage after dinner.
40	SVAuspicious	Woodburn's Market	Solomons, MD	★★★ ★	...deli inside grocery [store] is very good. (CLOSED)
443	closecall	Cali	St Mary's, MD		They have short hours, I think breakfast and lunch. We ate there one Sunday morning with the after church crowd and it was a very good breakfast. The service was fast and attentive. I believe there is room for a few boats to anchor there, but the campground is noisy. Better to anchor downstream and dinghy in to eat.
443	closecall	Spinnakers	St Mary's, MD		Great restaurant/bar.
443	closecall	Saint Inigoes General Store	St Mary's, MD		Fancy burgers and sandwiches, great breakfast sandwiches, and a dinner menu. All carryout only. Also a huge selection of craft beers and good wines. These guys really believe in generous portions.

343	midlifesailor	Bob Pascal's/ Harbour Inn	St Michaels, MD		Disappointed. We stopped in the bar for a couple of orange crushes on arrival and the food they were serving other tables looked great. After our club happy hour Sat evening we went over for dinner. We were seated shortly after 8. We ordered promptly and proceeded to wait nearly an hour for our meals. As far as I could tell the extra time was needed to overcook everything. Since we had already had some food at our party, we decided my wife would get the sauted rockfish and I got ahi tartare and truffel lobster mac and cheese appetizers as my meal. The tuna was great and exactly what I expected. The lobster mac and cheese was overcooked to dry and crunchy on top and there was little to no hint truffel. It was fairly flavorless. My wifes rockfish was also overcooked though only slightly. It was still moist and tender inside but had been allowed to get dry n crusty on the outside and not in a good way. I felt the place was capable of a lot better and you should get better for those prices.

399	Nicklaus	Gina's Café	St Michaels, MD		Had some of the best guacamole I've had with homemade corn and flour chips. The flour chips were almost like pita chips. I had the seared tuna tacos with ginger and my wife had the spicy shrimp tacos (they had some fancy name). Both were well seasoned and fresh. For dessert we had a homemade slice of peanut butter pie that really hit the spot – not too sweet. The only negative was the vodka selections. They had a lot of small batch or organic vodkas, which all taste funny to me. I was a little shocked by the bill – not outrageous, just more than I was expecting – but it was still probably cheaper than the other options in town and the food was delicious.
483	jsaronson	The Crab Claw	St Michaels, MD		Drinks and fresh oysters at Crab Claw. Patio was under 4 inches of water at high tide.
151	wwilson	The Crab Claw	St Michaels, MD	★★★	the place is Chesapeake hallowed ground and very enjoyable, but due in large part to its perfect waterfront location and picnic table style. We had a salad then crab cakes, served with corn on the cob, and french-fries. Good, but as much for the atmosphere as the food.
